

Compántas Lir

Contributed by Joe O'Connell
Wednesday, 08 August 2007
Last Updated Wednesday, 14 November 2007

About the group:

This very successful amateur drama group was formed in 1983 and is growing in strength ever since. Their productions have won awards and have performed in many All-Irelands. Based in the parish, the group have their home in Carnmore Community Centre.

Present Committee:

Chariman John Brennan, Secretary Rita O'Reilly, Treasurer Padraic O'Connell, PRO Dermot Hession
Contact Name, Number etc:

See their website or use this : Contact Info
Becoming Involved / Joining:

Contact the current secretary or any any member. Members are welcome at all times of the year.
Hours, meeting times:

Various Meetings during the year, see the website
Events:

Autumn Supper Theatre - 3 or 4 Nights of two One Act comedies. Wine, cheese and snacks are served at the interval -
October

3 Act Play - Performs in the Amateur Drama Circuit in shows from February to April, which includes the Claregalway
Drama Festival (around March 17th)

Town Hall - The 3 Act Play is performed for 3 nights in March/April Website:

www.compantaslir.ie for further information.

